

Industrial Liason

#	Id	Image	Title	Left Title	Left Paragraph	Descri
---	----	-------	-------	------------	----------------	--------

1	1	https://bntvc.appsyslyzer.com/uploads/files/opsdr_8kv2faq13.png	Industrial Liaison Officer	About this Office	At Bungoma North TVC, we understand the pivotal role that industry partnerships play in shaping the education and training of our students. The Industrial Liaison Office serves as the bridge between the academic world and industry, fostering collaboration and	Services offered by our Office Interns and Placements Program. We collaborate with industry partners to provide students with real-world experience through internships and placements programs. Industrial Works and Seminars. The organization works with seminars that bring industry experts to the institution providing valuable insights and knowledge to both students and faculty. Collaboration Research Initiatives. We encourage collaborative research projects between faculty and industry professionals, fostering innovation and addressing
---	---	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------	-------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

